DECISION RESERVED

In the Capital Removal Injunction Case.

CONCLUDED LAST NIGHT.

Judge Shackelford Will Deliver a Decision Next Week—The Arguments.

As was to have been expected, Judge Shackelford has taken the capital removal injunction case under advisement, and a decision will not be rendered until one day next week.

The arguments were concluded last night at Jefferson City, and the Jefferson City Courier of yesterday afternoon thus presents the case from its standpoint:

The attorneys for the state filed a demurrer in answer to the petition for the injunction, and the argument today has been on the demurrer. If the decision is for the state or against it the matter will be appealed to the supreme court.

When court opened this morning a larger crowd than usual had gathered to hear the case of Joseph R. Edwards vs. the Secretary of State, which is the injunction suit brought by Jefferson City, through Mr. Edwards, to prevent the city of Sedalia from stealing the state capital from this place.

Hon. J. H. Bothwell, Judge J. E. McKeighan, of St. Louis, and Attorney General Frank Walker were present to act in behalf of the secretary of state, while Jefferson City was represented by Mayor Edwin Silver, Jos. R. Edwards, A. M. Hough and others.

After Judge Shackelford had called the court to order Attorney General Walker read the petition for the injunction and the answer of the secretary of state. In arguing on the demurrer Mr. Walker took up the Illinois statutes and undertook to show that a court of equity had no jurisdiction over the actions of public officers. That the lawmaking power of the state was supreme and the citizens had no property right in the location of a capital or county seats. The right was not vested by the location and the property holders had no redress in the case of removal. The fact that the removal was based on future promises he said made no difference; that the people had the right of vote upon it and he quoted several decisions, one, the California case, which is similar to the Missouri case. He said former decisions were overlooked in the California case, but he did not prove that the supreme court of that state had not so held the proposition to be legal. He showed in one California case that the attempt to remove the capital from Sacramento to Vallejo, the legislature had passed the constitutional amendment removing it immediately, instead of leaving it to a vote of the people as is done in the Missouri case.

The four points brought out were:

1. Not a proper subject for equitable interference; county seat cases.
2. If proper subject is it such an amendment as is authorized by the constitution?
3. Resolutions not required to be read on three different days.
4. Act of admission and ordinance acceptance.

Mr. A. M. Hough commenced his argument against the demurrer. He said that the land for the capital had been donated by congress to the people of Missouri, and the proposition to move the seat of government by the action of the state or its representatives was illegal. He held that the supreme court decision of California was similar in the respect that the proposition was in the nature of a future contract, and to vote on anything that was proposed was not legal; that the law proposing a subsequent change of the seat of government from Jefferson City to Sedalia could not become an effective part of the constitution, and therefore would be inoperative.

Mr. Bothwell then argued in support of the demurrer. He cited cases of county seat removals which were made on the same principle that a vote could be taken on the supposition that a certain town would erect certain buildings. A large number of statutes piled up in front of him and he took up one after another to cite cases in support of his argument.

Mr. Bothwell occupied the time of the court until noon on his statistics.

After dinner Mr. Bothwell resumed, fortified with several more law works.

Judge Shirk was also on the scene, having arrived from Sedalia on the noon train.

When Mr. Bothwell commenced he went to the bottom of civil liberty and attempted to show that the power of the people was supreme. That if people wanted to remove their capital the could and no body of men could prevent it. The original constitution was exhumed and the foundation of the amendment locating the capital here was questioned. He says "the constitution did not establish the permanent seat of government here."

Mr. Bothwell got enthused over the subject and waived his arms majestically through the air. Mr. Bothwell said he did not care if the decision of the supreme court of California was at variance to the decision of the supreme court of Missouri and no court could pass on a proposed constitutional amendment. That the highest court was the people.

Mr. Bothwell continued his address until long in the afternoon.

H. Clay Ewing made a few telling points, as did also Lawyer Pope, who pointed out the difference between constitutional law and legislative acts.

Edwin Silver then arose and his speech was a masterly effort. He pointed out under certain conditions laws were inoperative, and dug the Sedalia legal lights in the ribs, literally speaking.

Lawyer McKeighan, of St. Louis, during the debate on both sides, sat at the table taking copious notes.

THE TAYLORS GUILTY

A Verdict to That Effect This Afternoon.

JURY OUT ONLY 2 1-2 HOURS

The Brothers Guilty of Murder in the First Degree—The Result Anticipated.

Special to the DEMOCRAT.

CARROLLTON, Mo., Aug. 2.—[3 p. m.] At 2:55 o'clock this afternoon the jury in the Taylor brothers' murder case, after being out two and one-half hours, brought in a verdict of guilty of murder in the first degree, the only result anticipated by those who have kept close track of the evidence introduced from beginning to close.

All of the counsel except Col. J. B. Hale, for the defense, and T. M. Bresnehan, for the state, made their arguments yesterday and last night.

At 8 o'clock this morning Col. Hale began his argument, and spoke eloquently and forcibly for the defendants, but all to no avail.

The closing argument by Mr. Bresnehan was one of the ablest ever made in North Missouri and carried conviction with it.

The verdict meets with general approval.

THE BOND APPROVED.

Mr. Taylor Accepts the Contract for the Paving of Fourth Street.

The bond of S. H. Taylor for $50,000, signed by Ed Hurley, E. G. Church and Kansas City and Saginaw, Mich., parties, has been approved by Mayor Hastain, and Mr. Taylor will at once proceed with the work of paving Fourth street, from Park to Thompson avenue.

It is understood that the work will be done by E. G. Church for Mr. Taylor.

Tomorrow's Celebration.

The colored people of Sedalia will celebrate the sixty-first anniversary of the emancipation of West India slaves tomorrow at Forest park. Speeches by several prominent local colored members of the race will be made, and good music furnished.

SCHOOL DIRECTORS.

The Business They Will Transact This Afternoon.

There will be a meeting of the school board at the office of Supt. G. V. Buchanan at 4 o'clock this afternoon, but no business of special importance is expected to come up for consideration.

F. S. Allen, the architect of the new High school building, is here, and will furnish an estimate as to the amount of work done on the structure, so that Contractor Lafford may be paid accordingly.

The building committee will report favorably in regard to contemplated improvements on the Lincoln school building, which have previously been referred to by the DEMOCRAT.

Representatives are here endeavoring to have a certain style of blinds and plastering used on the new building and the board will give the gentlemen an audience.

FRED BEHNKE SUED.

Nickel-in-the-Slot Machine Company Gets After Him.

John F. Sipe and Carlton C. Siger, partners, trading as the Automatic Music company, today began suit against Fred Behnke, the well known former caterer, to recover $245 alleged to be due on a nickel-in-the-slot music machine sold him in 1894.

The contract provided that Behnke was to pay the company all the money taken in during the week until it had collected $250. If the amount fell below $2 a week at any time Behnke was to make it good.

The plaintiffs claim that he failed to comply with his part of the contract and that he only remitted on one occasion, when he sent $5.

Died in His Chair.

John Holsman had a letter this morning from relatives at Guthrie Center, Iowa, giving details of the death of William Holsman, his brother. Mr. Holsman was sitting in an easy chair, apparently free from pain or a premonition of coming dissolution, and fell to the floor dead, without a struggle. He had often expressed a wish that he might die just that way.

Stone Work Begun.

The stone work on the foundation of the new Epworth Methodist church, at the corner of Sixth and Summit streets, was begun this morning. This will be one of the largest churches in town, and a handsome building, too.

July Collections.

County Collector Landmann collected taxes to the amount of $11,146.27 in July against $9,160.04 in July, 1894, by Mr. Doherty, a gain of $1,986.23 for the present year.

HIT WITH A GLASS.

E. L. Hamilton Fined for Assaulting Dave Williams.

Dave Williams, the liveryman, stepped into E. L. Hamilton's Capital City restaurant this morning for the purpose of collecting a bill from a boarder, when he was ordered out, he claims, by the proprietor, notwithstanding there had been no previous trouble between them.

Williams says he started to leave, when Hamilton came at him with a knife, but instead of using it he picked up a glass and hurled it, striking Williams on the forehead and cutting a gash that necessitated six stitches.

Hamilton was arrested, and when arraigned in Justice Burr's court pleaded guilty to assault and battery. He was fined $10 and costs, but refused to pay and is now serving out the fine in the city jail. When searched at the 'boose, a revolver was taken from the prisoner, and he may also be prosecuted on the charge of carrying concealed weapons.

Hamilton claims that he ordered Williams out because he was intoxicated and abusive, but this is denied by the latter and his friends.

Mrs. Frey Heard From.

Mrs. Ira Hinsdale had a letter today from Mrs. Belle Small, written at Cheyenne canon, Colorado Springs, Wednesday night, in which she stated that her sister, Mrs. J. J. Frey, had been the victim of a severe cold, but at that time was greatly improved and nothing serious was anticipated. Nothing definite is known here of Mrs. Frey having sustained a stroke of paralysis, notwithstanding the summons of Dr. Evans to the lady's bedside by wire last night, and the belief prevails that the report is unfounded.

SELLING FRANCHISES.

Our neighboring city of Nevada was the first in this state to take advantage of the new law providing for selling public franchises.

It had been argued that this law would hamper enterprises and that there would be no competition.

The experience of Nevada, however, shows the contrary to be true.

An electric light and street railway franchise was offered to the highest bidder in that city yesterday and there were three companies represented as bidders.

A Kansas capitalist bid two per cent. of the gross receipts.

A St. Louis firm offered two and one-eighth per cent.

A Kansas City man offered to pay the city two and one-half per cent. of the gross receipts of the company and the franchise was awarded to him.

This contract will bring a considerable sum of money into the city treasury every year and materially lessen the burden now borne by the property owners.

The law is a wise one. Streets are valuable, and when they are used by corporations as a part of their plants a fair rental should be charged.

Nevada has shown that it is all bosh to say that there will be no competition for valuable franchises under the new law, and other cities will profit by the example our enterprising neighbor has set.

Heretofore these franchises which were given away by city councils have frequently been the foundations of large private fortunes.

This policy will be changed in the future and these valuable privileges will be sold to the highest bidder and the taxpayer will get the benefit.

HOLDING THE STATE BACK.

"Missouri on Wheels" is a misnomer. The correct title should be "Sedalia on Wheels," because Sedalia will be the only town in the state that will receive direct benefit from it. It is very funny if the citizens of that place should take off their coats and buckle down to work on an enterprise simply for the good of the state. That four or five gentlemen should be sent out all over the state for months and their expenses paid by the board of trade. It sounds very funny, indeed, that a city should suddenly spring such a grand advertisement for the state and then only share in the benefits as do the other cities. Sedalia people must be very liberal to donate $1,000 to the movement besides the work of arranging the cars, securing subscriptions from other parts of the state and providing "oil" for the train. Yes, indeed, they are very liberal, but the liberality will be paid for, as a certain paper says, by 100,000 people.—Jefferson City Courier.

That Jefferson City should be jealous of Sedalia is perfectly natural, under the circumstances; but that the press of that community should have the effrontery to openly oppose a great popular movement to advertise the state merely because Sedalia is identified with it, will disgust all enterprising men.

The Courier purposely conceals the fact that the board of control of "Missouri on Wheels" is composed of one member from each congressional district, and therefore is not local at all.

This is done in the hope of destroying interest in the movement in other sections of the state where the present capital has any influence left.

With St. Louis, Kansas City, St. Joseph, Springfield, Carthage, Joplin, Clinton and scores of other live towns actively at work preparing displays and raising money to pay the expenses, the course of the Jefferson City press can be construed into nothing less than an effort to injure the whole state.

With nothing to advertise, and with no energy for anything except abuse and misrepresentation, the Courier is disposed to do its little best to prevent other communities from entering upon the march of progress.

Sedalia has merely done her duty in promptly raising her quota of the expense of the movement, and she is ready to give more if it is needed. But other communities have done the same, and it is against them as well as Sedalia, that Jefferson City has declared war.

A more disgusting spectacle of old fogyism and prejudice combined was never witnessed in the state.

It is folly to talk about restoring silver as the unit of value without giving it free access to the mints and coining it, whenever presented, into redemption money. The slightest discrimination against silver will destroy it as a money metal. It must stand on the same plane with gold, or it should not be coined at all. Germany pursued the sensible course. When she demonetized silver she called in her silver coin, melted it and sold it for gold. The mistake we have made, and it is a costly one, is in compromising and trying to make money out of what we treat as a base metal. The plain issue is, bimetalism with free coinage of both gold and silver, or gold monometallism.

SEDALIA is now kicking because the democratic state convention is to be held at Pertle Springs, and not in the new capital town. What ails Sedalia, anyhow? Does she want the earth and the fullness thereof?—Clinton Democrat.

You are in error, neighbor. Sedalia is doing no kicking on the subject whatever, and the DEMOCRAT, speaking for Sedalia, has promptly and emphatically stated that the convention should be held at Pertle Springs in pursuance of the call issued by the state committee.

OUR republican contemporaries are busy explaining "where they are at" on the silver question. If they are bimetalists, are they willing to work at it in earnest? Or do they regard some patch-work scheme like the Sherman silver purchase law—the last enactment of their party—as about the right thing?

PURSUANT to the call of the county committee, the democratic voters of Sedalia and Sedalia township will meet at the court house at two p. m. tomorrow to select delegates to the county convention which meets next Monday. It is important that a representative delegation of conservative democrats be selected.

EVERY democrat in Sedalia should be present at the mass meeting at the court house at two p. m. tomorrow to select delegates to the county convention.

THAT north and south railroad should be kept before the people until some capitalist takes hold and builds it.

SEDALIA business men are greatly encouraged at the splendid prospects for an increased trade this fall.

PETTIS COUNTY needs a few hundred miles of good rock road, and the sooner it is built the better.

MAKE the movement to advertise the state permanent. Constant work in that direction will pay.

THE state convention is a little early, but it was the gold standard men who set the date.

REMEMBER the mass meeting of democrats at the court house tomorrow at two p. m.

ATTEND the democratic mass meeting at the court house at two p. m. tomorrow.

MASS MEETING of democrats at the court house at two p. m. tomorrow.

PAVE the streets and then keep them clean and free from dust.

Meet in Kansas City.

The Kansas City Star of last evening said: "The board of managers of the 'Missouri on Wheels' project will meet with the officers of the Commercial club at the club rooms tomorrow morning to talk about Kansas City's representation in the car and its part of the expense."

Card of Thanks.

I desire to express my sincere thanks to Sedalia friends, and especially to the C. K. of A. and C. B. S., for their kind assistance in my hour of affliction.

A BANK'S FAILURE.

Politics and a Row Over a School Teacher Result Disastrously.

Thomas Shackelford, a prominent attorney of Glasgow, Mo., was in Kansas City yesterday, says today's Times, getting depositions for use in the Slater, Mo., bank failure cases. Mr. Shackelford represents the directors of the bank, who have been sued by the depositors. The case bids fair to become famous in Central Missouri legal circles.

Concerning the failure of the Bank of Salisbury, of which J. H. Fink was cashier, Mr. Shackelford says there was considerable excitement in that part of Chariton county on the day of the failure. The failure was for $40,000, and it was understood that Major Fink owed the bank about $17,000. The misfortune is ascribed partly to the political ventures of Major Fink, and partly to a school fight, which has torn the town of Salisbury asunder for several years past.

The Salisbury academy was started when the town first began to consider itself of some importance. There was a quarrel among the directors over the retention of the first principal, and this resulted in the withdrawal of several directors, who started a school of their own in another part of town with the gentleman under dispute as principal. Major Fink was one of the withdrawing directors and as he was probably the wealthiest man connected with the new school, it looked largely to him for support.

So fierce has the school fight waxed at times that it is said to have quite divided the town. Every citizen of the place took sides, and even newcomers were compelled to state their preference before being allowed any peace of mind. Salisbury is a prosperous town of about 1,500 inhabitants between Kansas City and Moberly, on the Wabash.

Coming on a Special.

Company C will leave next Sunday, on a special train, for Sedalia, where they will remain one week, says the Lamar Democrat. The Second Regiment is composed of eight good companies, and Battery A, of St. Louis, will go into camp with them. There will be a sham battle during the week. We wish the boys a nappy time during their absence.

One night when Mr. Isaac Reese was stopping with me, says M. F. Hatch, a prominent merchant of Quartermaster, Washington, I heard him groaning. On going to his room I found him suffering from cramp colic. He was in such agony I feared he would die. I hastily gave him a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea remedy. He was soon relieved and the first words he uttered were, "what was that stuff you gave me?" I informed him. A few days ago we were talking about his attack and he said he was never without that remedy now. I have used it in my family for several years. I know its worth and do not hesitate to recommend it to my friends and customers.

A CRACK CLUB.

The Lamar Ball Team Made Up of Good Players.

Manager Roe, of the Future Capitals, should endeavor to bring the Lamar team to Sedalia for a series of games. It is a crack team, as will be seen by the following from the Lamar Democrat:

The Lamar ball team has got down to business at last and is playing fair games of ball since starting on their Kansas tour. On July 21st they played Webb City, the score standing 6 and 5; on the 22d they beat Carthage by a score of 5 to 1; on the 23d they played Parsons, defeating the jayhawkers by 18 to 2. July 24th the Parsons club was again defeated by a score of 13 to 6. On the 25th, 26th and 27th the club played Independence, winning the two first games by 7 to 3 and 3 to 2; in the third game the Independence club scored 13 to 6 for Lamar. The club plays Coffeyville on the 29th, 30th and 31st. They have played to good crowds thus far and are highly pleased with the results of their trip.

FIGHT WITH A BURGLAR.

The Exciting Experience of a Columbia Physician.

Dr. Ozias Paquin, a druggist of Columbia, had a desperate struggle with a burglar at his home yesterday morning, at 2:30 o'clock.

Paquin was awakened by the burglar creeping into his room, and, springing from the bed, grappled with the intruder. They struggled from the door of his room on the second floor down a flight of stairs to the first floor, where the burglar succeeded in drawing a pistol, and, firing at Paquin, forced him to retreat. The burglar then escaped, taking with him $52 in money and a number of valuable jewels.

Paquin says the man is Will Dozier, a negro, formerly in his employ. The negro was arrested and arraigned. He pleaded not guilty, and was confined in the county jail to await his preliminary trial next Monday.

WANTS A DIVORCE.

The Wife of a Former Sedalia Newspaper Writer.

W. W. Bloss, years ago a writer on the Bazoo, is thus referred to in a dispatch from St. Joseph, Mo.:

Mrs. Mary Bloss, wife of a newspaper man well known in St. Joseph, Kansas City and Chicago, where he has been employed at different times, has brought suit for divorce in the Buchanan county circuit court, charging him with abandonment.

Bloss was last heard from in Minneapolis, where he was employed on one of the papers as an editorial writer. When Bloss lived in St. Joseph he was managing editor of the Gazette, and when he left the city his wife and three children remained. Bloss was once with the board of trade firm of Counselman & Day in Kansas City.

Going to Europe.

Father Joseph Schmidt, pastor of the Catholic church at Taos, leaves in a few days for Europe, to be absent three months, says the Jefferson City Tribune. During his absence Father Benton, of Wardsville church, will have charge of both churches. Father Schmidt's many friends in Jefferson City, as well as in the country, will wish him a pleasant journey and a safe return.

A Sedalian to Talk.

Judge Z. F. Bailey will be here Friday night to talk "Missouri on Wheels" to the people of Morgan county, says the Versailles Statesman. People all over the state are taking great interest in this most laudable enterprise of showing the rest of the country Missouri's wonderful resources. Morgan county is one of the richest counties in the world, and should occupy a prominent position in this train. Everybody should come to the court house Friday night and hear what has already been done and what will be done. It is a treat to hear Judge Bailey talk on this subject, and he should have a full house.

RICH CROPS.

Wheat and Corn Are Certainly King in Missouri.

The monthly bulletin of the state board of agriculture says that the corn crop of 1895 increased to 108 per cent against 60 per cent in 1894. The total yield in 1894 was 140,277,000 bushels, against 272,000,000 bushels in 1895. Wheat in 1894 was 17,000,000 bushels, and in 1895 23,000,000.

Oats in 1894, 28,000,000, and in 1895, 34,200,000.

Oats and wheat were damaged 9 per cent by continued rains.

Hay acreage decreased 10 per cent. The yield will be one and one quarter tons, against nine-tenths of a ton to the acre in 1894.

Pasture acreage is reduced. Cotton is 95 per cent, tobacco 93 per cent of an average crop. Apples and melons, a big crop.

Potatoes increased from 65 per cent to 101. The yield will be 10,000,000 bushels.

A Few Facts.

Some people do business alone for what money there is in it, regardless of their future reputation or standing, and when they start out to buy cattle for their market they buy cattle the same way.

Anything that is cheap catches their eye—quality cuts no figure with them. It is different with us. We will not be tempted with cheap stuff; it must be strictly first-class or no trade at any price. We are using cattle right now that came right out of the feed lot, corn fed and prime. We are the only market in Sedalia today that is using corn fed cattle. We have no use for the grass trash that is being used at this time in Sedalia. We are determined to hold our reputation, let it cost what it may, and still continue to pay good prices and get the best cattle.

If you will just stop in we will show you some beef that nothing in this city can be found to equal it, and all we ask of you is to ask your neighbor, who buys from us, and see what they have to say of its quality.

Everything is held in cold storage until it is made prime and juicy. Try one of our roast beef and you will be convinced you have been doing business at the wrong market.

Leave word at our market and we will call at your house daily and get your orders, or telephone 120. NEWTON MEAT CO.

Mr. L. C. Krauthoff to Marry.

Mr. L. C. Krauthoff, the Kansas City attorney, well known in Sedalia, left for New York city yesterday, where on Saturday he will be united in marriage to Miss Margaret Grant, of that city. Miss Grant was for several years private secretary to Julian Hawthorne, the author. A trip up the St. Lawrence and a tour of New Brunswick will follow. They will reach Kansas City in September.

Mr. C. G. Strong, principal of the public schools at Anderson, Cal., says: "I have used Chamberlain's Pain Balm and have found it an excellent remedy for lameness and slight wounds."

Lameness usually results from a sprain, or other injury, or from rheumatism, for which Chamberlain's Pain Balm is especially intended and unequalled. It affords almost immediate relief and in a short time effects a permanent cure.

Will Help Sedalia.

From the Warrensburg Star. A poll of the editors of the weekly papers of Missouri taken by the St. Louis Chronicle shows that Sedalia is undoubtedly the choice of the newspaper men of the state for the permanent seat of government. The Jefferson City people made a grave mistake by attempting to prevent the people from voting upon this question. The capital belongs to the people of the state and not to Jefferson City. Their law suit will react in favor of Sedalia.

Gone to Pertle Springs.

Mrs. Louie Hoffman and daughter, Louella, Miss Leta Boulitt, Miss Virgie Hart, of Windsor, Mrs. Ed. Shultz, Charles Rhodes, Powell Cain, Glover Alton, J. Morgan Brown and others went to Pertle Springs on the fast mail today, to attend the Methodist Epworth League convention at that place.

THE CITY HALL.

The Suggestions of Major Wm. Beck Are Endorsed.

To the Editor of the DEMOCRAT.

I see in your last Sunday paper an article signed by our well known townsman, Wm. Beck, in which he suggests an extension of the present city hall to the south of the building 42 feet by a depth west of 40 feet. This, he says, provides on the ground floor two nice and roomy butchershops, for which applications are now on file. It also gives the council, on the second floor, a well-ventilated council room, with stairs leading from Osage street.

It is a sensible and practical suggestion. The shops pay more than the interest of the investment, and an exchange of the present council room to a new one is not only desirable but necessary.

I learn a proposition is made to remodel the entire structure, at large expense, and great inconvenience to the present occupants of the market house.

I think the taxpayers of the city will not approve an unnecessary expenditure of the city's funds.

Then, again, the proposition to have the various city offices on the ground floor of the present city hall is not a good one; the present arrangement is far better.

In regard to the rebuilding of a fire-proof vault, it can easily be made, adjoining the rear of the extension. It ought to be double; the lower portion for such books not in use, and the upper part, adjoining the clerk's room, for the current books and records.

The plan suggested by Mr. Beck is a good one; and, best of all, is not expensive, and in no way interferes with the present arrangements at the market house and the lessees at the vegetable stands. Further, these men have leases.

The city hall, by its extension on Osage street, will cover the unsightly sheds in the rear, and will present, well painted, a very good appearance. OBSERVER.

The Governor's Appointments.

Gov. Stone yesterday made the following appointments:

Wm. A. Rothwell, of Moberly, to be a member of the board of managers of the State Reform school for boys, at Booneville, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Walt M. Monroe.

Frank Tew, to be captain and commissary of the Third regiment of infantry, N. G. M., with rank from June 25, 1895.

Charles A. Stiles, second lieutenant of Company C, Second regiment infantry, with rank from July 13, 1895.

An Editor Cowhided.

V. T. Williams, editor of the Stanberry Herald, was cowhided yesterday afternoon by Mrs. F. A. Weimer, wife of the editor of the Stanberry Sentinel. The trouble grew out of a newspaper war. Weimer and wife went to the Herald office, where Mrs. Weimer made the assault on Editor Williams. In the melee Weimer drew a pistol and struck Williams on the head with it, after which it was taken from him by one of the Herald printers, and Weimer was ejected.

A Woman Detects a Thief.

A negro entered the residence of T. T. Driggs at Hannibal about noon yesterday and stole a small amount of money, a certificate of deposit for $75 and a gold watch and chain. Mrs. Driggs returned before the thief had escaped, and, securing a revolver, attempted to shoot him, but was prevented by her sister. The thief made his escape with the booty.

Rescued Her Sister.

A babe belonging to a Mr. Minder fell into a cistern at Pittsburg, Kas., yesterday, when her 13-year-old sister screamed for her mother and jumped in after the little one. She held the child aloft till the help arrived and both were rescued. The water was so deep that the brave girl could barely keep her mouth above water by standing on her tiptoes.

Reward for a Murderer.

Gov. Stone has issued a proclamation offering a reward of $100 for the arrest and conviction of "Ab" Meade, who shot and killed William Egan in Lawrence county, July 22, 1895. The reward stands for one year.

EXPLAINED.

Confidence in Their Product Led the Shakers to Make an Unusual Offer.

People of this day and generation are not disposed to give things away. When therefore the Mount Lebanon Shakers recently stated that anyone could get a bottle of Digestive Cordial by calling in person at their New York office, it excited a great deal of talk.

One of the leading dailies of the Metropolis sent a reporter to find out what was meant. It developed that the preparation in question has proven beneficial in so large a majority of cases that nine-tenths of the people who are sufficiently anxious to call for a sample, find so much relief that they continue the product's use and tell their friends about it. As a result a very large demand has been created.

The Shakers have a long record of success as inventors and their various medicinal products have always enjoyed a high reputation. The Digestive Cordial is not only nourishing in itself but it digests other foods when taken as directed.

Sleepless nights, spots before the eyes and a sense of heaviness after eating, loss of weight and general weakness are among the common symptoms of indigestion which it promptly relieves, and it is gratifying to know that such a positive and harmless remedy as the Digestive Cordial should have at last been devised.

The common idea about consumption is that it is a lung trouble, but this is not all. Why is it that the consumptive gets thinner and thinner until he has wasted to a skeleton? Because the food he eats does not nourish him. It is not digested.

The first sign of the appearance of consumption is growing thin, wasting; this is before the cough; before the expectation. Stop the wasting and recovery will follow in the incipient stages, and the disease will be retarded in advanced stages.

CURE FOR OTHERS.

BAD COUGH, SPIT UP BLOOD, CONSUMPTION.

K. C. McLIN, Esq., of Kemperville, Princess Anne Co., Va., writes: "When I commenced taking your 'Discovery' I was very low with a cough, and at times spit up much blood. I was not able to do the least work, but most of the time was in bed. I was all run-down, very weak, my head was dizzy, and I was extremely despondent. The first bottle I took did not seem to do me much good, but I had faith in it and continued using it until I had taken fifteen bottles, and now I do not look nor feel like the same man I was one year ago. People are astonished, and say, 'well, last year this time I would not have thought that you would be living now.' I can thankfully say I am entirely cured of a disease which, but for your wonderful 'Discovery,' would have resulted in my death."

More Talk of a Fast Train on the M., K. &amp; T.

MAY BE ALL TALK, THOUGH

Items of Interest Picked Up From Various Sources for the Benefit of "Democrat" Readers.

Although the subject of a new fast train on the M., K. & T. has not been discussed to any great extent during the past few weeks, the matter has not been dropped by the officials of the road, so the Hannibal Journal has been reliably informed.

To those who watch railroad matters closely it would seem that the Katy is rapidly getting in shape to put on these trains. The readers of the Journal will remember that recently a new passenger engine for the M., K. & T. arrived in Hannibal from the east and was taken south shortly afterwards. This is one of the five of the same pattern that have been purchased by that road, all to be used in the passenger service. They are larger than any now in use on passenger trains on the road and are built for speed, having six-foot driving wheels. It is now thought that by the time the four others arrive the necessary arrangements will be completed for the putting on of the train.

With a fast train from Chicago to Texas the M., K. & T. will be able to compete for business which it is now unable to secure. The Journal trusts that ere many moons the "Katy Flyer" will be a regular daily visitor in this section.

Brotherhood of Trainmen.

At Galesburg, Ill., last night, the new grand officers of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen assumed the duties of their positions. These officers are: Grand master, P. H. Morrissey; first vice grand master, W. G. Lee, of Kansas City; second vice grand master, Val Fitzpatrick, of Columbus, O.; third vice grand master, T. R. Dodge, Chicago. The territory was divided among them as follows: Western, W. G. Lee; eastern, Val Fitzpatrick; middle or central, T. R. Dodge.

Grand Master Morrissey will have general direction and supervision of all territory, and will go wherever the necessities of the organization demand. The outlook is an encouraging one, and the officers expect to be busily engaged the next few months in organizing and reorganizing lodges throughout the country. Large additions to the membership have been made as the result of the adoption of the graded insurance plan, and further accessions are indicated.

A Badge of Faithfulness.

On the left sleeve of the coats worn by the porters of Pullman palace cars are placed, after five years of service, a strip of silver braid, and, after two strips have been added, the company furnishes the uniforms free of charge to the wearer.

Walter Cannon, the popular and intelligent porter on the Pullman palace car line on Missouri Pacific trains 1 and 2, wears three such strips, and has nearly three years to his credit on the fourth. He has been for more than a dozen years on the parlor car, and is deservedly a favorite. James Richardson, also of that line, has two stripes to his credit.

Out an Umbrella.

Dick Clark, a machinist in the east end roundhouse, hasn't as many umbrellas as he has had, but his stock of knowledge of the shortcomings of human nature is much larger.

A few days ago, while a heavy rain was falling, a young man in a buggy drove to his front door and stopped. He had a young girl in the buggy with him, and Dick, in the kindness of his heart, after trying in vain to get the two into the house until the storm blew over, offered his umbrella to protect the little girl. The young man accepted the umbrella and sat there a few minutes holding it over his companion. Finally he told Mr. Clark that he would take the girl to her aunt's, near by, leave her and return in a minute. That minute has now stretched into several days, and the umbrella comes not. Dick thinks he'll get his umbrella—when all men become angels.

Col. E. K. Sibley's Burial.

The burial of E. K. Sibley, ex-superintendent of the Missouri Pacific, whose death at Victoria, B. C., was chronicled in the DEMOCRAT a couple of days ago, will take place at Dixon, Ill. The deceased was 53 years old. He became ill on a steamer returning from Alaska, where he was on an extended pleasure trip with his wife, Gen. Magee and Gen. and Mrs. Lathrop, of New York city.

For many years Col. Sibley was assistant general passenger agent of the Iron Mountain, St. Louis and Southern railroad, then general manager and receiver of the Memphis and Little Rock railroad, and later superintendent of the Missouri Pacific. He went to New York and joined the firm of Marquand & Parmley, and retired last spring. He was a director of the American Surety Co. and of the New York and Ontario Western railway. He lived in East Orange, N. J.

Hospital Report.

The following patients were admitted to the M., K. & T. hospital this morning:

Abe Bryant, colored, section laborer, Caddo, headache.

Joseph Miller, extra gang, North Jefferson, wrench of back.

W. P. Fitzgerald, section laborer, Laredo, traumatic abscess of left leg.

Henry D. Jennings, bridgeman, Rockwell, Texas, intermittent fever.

Jerry Mines, colored, section laborer, Greenville, Texas, intermittent fever.

Henry Harris, colored, extra gang, McAllister, I. T., colic.

Increasing the Force.

Master Mechanic Weller, of the Missouri Pacific shops, is having his coal sheds filled and has added twelve men to his working force. The sheds will contain several hundred tons of coal, and there will be plenty of work for the men for several weeks.

Coach, Cab and Caboose.

Division Superintendent Stillwell went west on the fast mail this morning.

Receiver Tom Mitchum, of the narrow gauge, was a westbound passenger on the Missouri Pacific fast mail this morning.

Superintendent W. B. Lyons came in from St. Louis last night with other M., K. & T. officials, the latter passing south to Texas.

Tom Farr arrived home today from the Sedalia hospital and will resume his duties at the freight house tomorrow.—Denison Herald.

Conductor Whitney and his train crew went to Nevada this morning, to testify in the coroner's inquest over the remains of a man killed by train No. 4 at that point yesterday.

Jimmie Woods, the Missouri Pacific machinist who had his toes mashed by the falling of a block a days ago, is getting along nicely. He is able to leave the house and be driven down town.

Joe Ray, foreman of the west end roundhouse, is having a nice new barn built on his premises at the corner of Eleventh and Wagner streets. Several of the boys at the shops are helping, for which Joe has promised them a keg or two when the job is completed.

Getting Much Better.

QUINCY BASE BALL.

The Way the Papers Talk When a Club Gets Gay.

In the light of the late games with Quincy which the St. Joseph boys put up, it might not be out of place to call the attention of the gang to the report of a game played a few days before, and tender a little of the medicine to St. Joseph. Here is the way the local paragrapher for the Quincy publication puts up the talk against the visitors:

"The trouble with the corn-fed skates from Rockford is that they have been studying elocution instead of base ball. They imagine that if they come out and address the grand stand or the umpire with impassioned oratory it wins the game.

"The red-legged runts from Rockford must remember that these are dog days and that there is a city ordinance about wearing muzzles. 'Barney' Snyder's forensic abilities may be released, but he can't hit an ice wagon with a bed slat, even when it is anchored to the earth. He imagines baseball is played with the palate instead of the fins. He goes for and delivers a declamation and then stalks to the bench with his face puckered up like a piece of tripe.

"The baseball barnacles have been owing an umpire for four days and think they have a first mortgage on everything in sight. The last games at Rockford were umpired by a local celebrity interested in the home team, and he made them a present of each one on a carved trencher. Now, when they go against an umpire who is seeking to be fair and impartial they raise their brows in surprise and make all manner of noises with their flamboyant mugs.

"The spectacle of 'Barney' Snyder going on a dead run from the players' bench to the center of the diamond and grabbing the umpire by the throat as if he were a lay figure on the bargain counter is one calculated to rattle even the most conscientious umpire and make him forget mother, home and friends. Of course, the hidebound coyotes from Winnebago county won."

HOME FROM A TRIP.

Congressmen J. P. Tracy and J. D. Hubbard on the Water.

Congressmen Hubbard and Tracy returned yesterday from a cruise up the Osage river as high as Linn Creek, says the Jefferson City Tribune.

This is the second trip Congressman Hubbard has made up the Osage in the past month. He accompanied a party of Jefferson City people, who had chartered a steamer up the river, and casually invited a few hundred of his friends in Miller and adjoining counties to accompany him.

When the people who had hired the steamer heard of this arrangement they very naturally kicked, and twenty of the congressman's friends were left upon the landing. So to square himself with his friends the congressman chartered the steamer Frederick and sailed away up the Osage again and was given the "glad hand" by his Tusculum friends. The party were gone up the Osage three days. Tomorrow they will go up the Missouri river probably 150 miles.

A CUTTING AFFRAY.

One Man Plunged a Knife Into the Breast of Another.

A Harwood, Vernon county, dispatch says: Wednesday evening a cutting affray occurred at Fair Haven Springs between W. B. Gibbins and S. A. Douglas.

Mr. Gibbins was saying something against the character of Geo. Norton, the merchant, and Mr. Douglas spoke in Mr. Norton's defense. Mr. Gibbins struck Mr. Douglas several times. Mr. Douglas, being an old man, retreated, and Gibbins followed him up.

Douglas told him to go away or he would hurt him, but Gibbins did not stop, and Douglas cut him on the left arm and over the heart. Drs. Haire and Lunsford, of Schell City, were summoned and say the chances of recovery are against him. He spit blood quite freely, and they thought the knife went into the cavity near the heart.

Both men have resided in Fair Haven for several years.

Charged With Rape.

James O. Ferguson, formerly of Miller county, and for the past several months residing near Proctor in Morgan county, was arrested and examined last Saturday, before Esquire Elliott, says the Versailles

Leader, on the charge of committing rape on his 13-year-old stepdaughter, Nancy Lula Caldwell. After hearing the testimony, the justice committed Ferguson to jail in default of $1,000 bail. Sheriff Lumpee, on Monday, landed the prisoner in the Booneville jail, where he will remain until the next term of the Morgan county circuit court, the third Monday in August.

FAILURE AT CALHOUN.

A Prominent Merchant Was Finally Forced to the Wall.

The store in Calhoun of H. H. Harnsberger, one of the oldest merchants of the northeast part of the county, has been taken possession of by creditors, says the Clinton Democrat.

Recorder Stevens was aroused at 1 o'clock this morning to place two assignment papers on file. The first of these was in favor of the Farmers' and Citizens' bank of Windsor for various notes aggregating $4,730. Following this was another document of similar import in favor of Jane Ellis, of Windsor; Henry Slack, of Calhoun, and H. J. Galbreath, of Lafayette county, upon notes aggregating $1,024. Mr. Slack also aroused Deputy Circuit Clerk Kennedy and filed an attachment to make good his note for $150.

Mr. Harnsberger was until a comparatively recent period a prominent merchant of Windsor, moving from there to Calhoun. He has a first class business reputation and a host of friends who will hope to see him weather his financial difficulties and come out on his feet again.

Hanging Too Good for Him.

Emmett Divers, the negro brute who outraged and murdered Mrs. J. W. Cain in Callaway county a week ago and is now confined in the St. Louis jail for safe keeping, has made a confession. He ought to be taken out and made an example of, says the Warrensburg Star, by being burned at the stake in the slowest and most torturous manner possible. Hanging is entirely too good for such inhuman monsters. Not until extreme measures are resorted to will Missouri rid herself of such characters.

Corn Twenty Feet High.

J. T. Denton, who owns a good farm a few miles south of town, has ordered a dozen step ladders and as many saws to be used in gathering his corn, which is now over eighteen feet high and the ears eight to ten feet from the ground, says the Warsaw Times. The Times is not responsible for the above, for it is just "hear say," but judging from some corn we have seen lately, we are inclined to believe it. He should send some samples over the country on "Missouri on Wheels."

Some Apples Himself.

Captain J. W. Mills, of the Missouri Pacific blacksmith shop, saw a little item in a St. Louis paper about eight apples growing on one twig. "Hah!" said he. "That's not much. I found a twig on one of my trees with ten apples on it, and might have found one with a dozen by looking closely. They're not crab apples, either; they measure two and a half inches around."

The difference between Pills and Simmons Liver Regulator is just this: Pills don't go down very easy with most people, and you feel them afterwards. While Simmons Liver Regulator in liquid or powder is very pleasant to take, and the only feeling that you have afterwards is the great relief that it gives from Constipation, Biliousness, Sick Headache and Dyspepsia. It is a mild laxative and a tonic.

Nevada's New Ball Club.

HUNTINGTON, Mass., March 18, 1895. THE NARCOTI-CHEMICAL CO., Springfield, Mass.

GENTLEMEN:—I have used tobacco for over twenty-five years, chewing and smoking every day from 7 a. m. to 10 p. m. stopping only for meals.

SEDALIA SINGERS.

Miss Nellie Stark's Recent Concert at Windsor.

Miss Stark's concert was a success, notwithstanding the rain and storm. The house was more than half filled, and, had the weather been favorable, it would have been crowded.

The programme was excellent, and was given as printed on the bills, with the exceptions of one or two changes.

Miss Stark never sang more sweetly, nor appeared more lovely, and she was repeatedly encored.

Miss Hawley gave her solos in a splendid manner. Her voice is very rich, strong and sweet.

The string quartet took the audience by storm. Their selections were indeed fine.

Prof. Gregg gave a violin solo, which was delightful. Our people, or few of them, have ever heard this instrument, and they were charmed with it.

The vocal duet by Misses Stark and Hawley was especially good, also the piano solo by Miss Stark.

The "Creole Love Song" by Miss Stark, accompanied by the string quartet, was one of the best numbers on the programme.

Taken altogether, this was one of the finest entertainments ever given in Windsor, and we regret very much that the rain prevented it from being a complete success—financially as well as otherwise.

If at any time Miss Stark wishes to repeat her concert, we can assure her of a crowded house, as our people fully appreciate her efforts, and her concerts are strictly first-class, and are worthy of a generous patronage.

Miss Stark will leave about the middle of August for Berlin, Germany, where she hopes to complete her musical education. We wish her success in abundance and a safe return to her native land.

KILLED ON THE "KATY."

A Track Man Lost His Life at Nevada Yesterday Afternoon.

Passenger train No. 4, north bound, on the "Katy," killed a man just east of the round house at about 3:10 p. m., says last evening's Nevada Mail. His name was John Carroll, and he was a track man. He had been working near Joplin on the electric light line, but had left there and was on his way to Green Ridge to get work on the Holden branch.

Thos. O'Leary, also a track man, was with him. He says he was making a cup of coffee at the time. He saw the train coming and called to Carroll, who was sitting on the track. Carroll got up but that was the last he saw of the unfortunate man till he saw him bleeding and dying by the side of the track.

The poor fellow was struck just back of the left ear and his skull crushed. He lived only a few minutes after being picked up by train men, the train having stopped immediately.

HARD TO FIND.

People Not Less Than Ninety Years Old Are Wanted.

The Globe Democrat is hunting for Missouri pioneers ninety years old and over and has found quite a number in St. Louis, says the Jefferson City Tribune.

There are plenty of old darkies who claim to be ninety years old and over, but the truth is most of them do not really know their ages.

Uncle Dick Hoops, who lived for many years at Osage City, but is now residing near Westphalia, in Osage county, must be more than 135 years old, according to his own calculation. He is certainly a very old man, but it is very doubtful if he is as old as he thinks he is.

When one comes to look around it is no easy matter to find persons ninety years of age and over. There are plenty up to eighty, but over this age they are very scarce, particularly outside of large cities.

Jumbo Hail Stones.

"Some of the largest hail stones I ever saw fell at my place in Walker township, Sunday morning," said James Archer to a Nevada Mail reporter. "There were not many hail stones fell, about twenty striking my house. I believe some of them were as large as my fist. They looked as large as big apples lying in the yard. No particular damage resulted from the hail. Corn is being damaged in flat land by the excessive rainfall."

Fine Dog Killed.

"Billy" Drechsler, the switchman, No. 522 Saline street, had a fine Newfoundland dog killed by an electric car last night.

A WHITE POODLE.

How the "Second Midnight Run" Found a Mascot.

The "second midnight run" train on the Third avenue elevated road, while whirling down Forty-second street to the South ferry station at four-fifteen o'clock one morning came to a sudden stop at Thirty-eighth street.

The butchers, green grocers and other early birds who sleep on the train most of the way from Harlem to the markets, woke up with a start and craned their necks anxiously from the car windows to see what the trouble was.

Ahead a gasoline torch bobbed up and down in the darkness like a jack-o'-lantern on the track. The locomotives breathed and chafed impatiently, awaiting the return of the fireman.

A little way further he was seen in the light of his torch to bend over and take a bundle of something white up in his arms. He turned and came back with it.

A hundred heads protruding from windows watched him come.

"It is a baby," burst from them in one breath, and the entire lot scrambled for the engine, on the track and through the train.

Fireman Buck met them with his white bundle hugged close. They fell upon him, a perfect mob, with: "Chirp! Chirp! The little darling, how did the poor —"

"Wow," said the dear thing, and snapped at the nose poked nearest.

It was not a baby, but a puppy, a little white poodle dog trotting all alone down the elevated track from heaven knows where, in the small hours of the morning, when the engineer saw him and stopped the train just in time.

They took him into the cab, while the excited passengers went back to sleep, feeling that they had been imposed upon. Fireman Buck and the engineer didn't feel that way. They got the pup some milk down at South ferry and took him back with them on the home run.

The "second midnight run" has a mascot now, the only elevated dog in town.

But how he got on the track where he was, and where he was going at that hour are mysteries that may never be explained.—N. Y. Sun.

THE UNEXPECTED.

A Cat in a Basket and Her Three Kittens.

A stout old lady with a red face and a big market basket on her arm boarded a crowded Girard avenue car yesterday afternoon, and taking the only vacant seat, deposited her basket in front of her. In a few minutes strange sounds began emerging from the basket and the stout old lady showed visible signs of embarrassment. The racket continued, and finally she tried to quiet the cat—for such it was—by speaking to it. Her efforts were futile, though, and an old gentleman sitting next to her thought she had better take off the lid and see what was the trouble; maybe it was caught in some manner. Gallantly dropping on one knee the old gentleman raised the lid slightly and peeped inside. He took one look. His face grew red and silently replacing the lid he walked to the platform and jumped off without waiting for the car to stop.

This peculiar action aroused the curiosity of the rest of the passengers, while the owner of the basket appeared to be greatly mystified. By this time the noise had ceased, but fully determined to investigate herself the old lady tore the lid of the basket completely off. Horrors! Instead of one cat there were four, three being sleek little kittens, all scrambling around with their eyes shut. The passengers were all crowding around now to get a look at the new family. But the stout old lady did not seem to relish her position and signaled the conductor to stop at the next crossing.—Philadelphia Record.

Unable to Oblige.

"Excuse me, sir," said the man in the row behind, "but would you mind asking your wife to remove her hat? I assure you that I cannot see a thing on the stage."

"I'd like to oblige you, sir, but it is impossible," said the man addressed. "We live out of town and we must get home to-night."

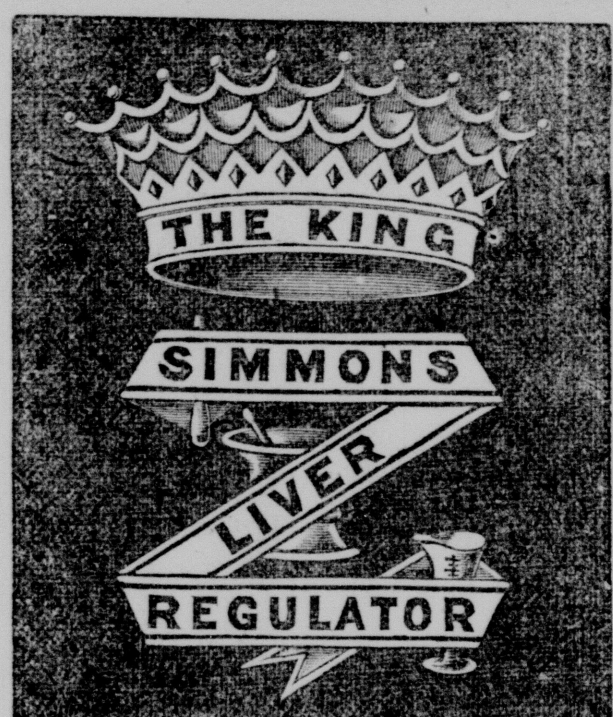

"What has that got to do with it?"

"What has that got to do with it? Why, our train goes twenty minutes after the end of the performance, and it takes her an hour to put that hat on."—Harper's Bazar.
